

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:40; sunset, 4:29.

Chi. Postoffice Clerks' union members writing their aldermen to refuse confirmation of appointment of any school board member opposed to the Teachers' Federation.

J. P. Callahan, 3335 W. Van Buren, hit on head by empty beer bottle that fell from window of Briggs house, Randolph and Fifth av. Scalp wound.

Cold weather prevented public mass meeting Holden ct., last night. Geo. Koop sent word to 10 cops, held in reserve to wield clubs, when he found it was too cold for a meeting.

Miss Madge Ebert, 3011 Normal av., dead. Wesley hospital. Under anaesthetic after operation.

D. J. McNamara, 4316 Emerald av., stabbed twice below heart by Italian.

Policeman John Lambert interrupted men breaking safe Consumers Co., 50th and Newberry. Escaped.

Gunaes Peterson, 2944 North av., shot in foot in quarrel with C. A. Sandquist, saloonkeeper, 424 W. Chicago av.

Mrs. Julia Choitz, 1548 N. Ridgeway av., found dead by husband. No cause known.

Body of man who dropped dead at Best and Wrightwood av. identified as Charles Lepz, 1222 W. Adams.

Burglars got $100 loot from home of Mrs. M. E. Smith, 5032 Winthrop.

Fire caused $6,000 damage at 1208 N. Hoyne av., cause unknown.

Tony Rubac, 1131 W. 16th, had his head broken by 8 men. Assaulted and robbed him.

Anthony DeAndrea endorsed for alderman by 40 Italian societies in 19th ward meeting.

Home of R. G. Gerhardt, 316 S. Harvey av., Oak Park, burglarized. Loot worth $100.

Six men and five women taken in raid on hotel at 1255 W. Madison. Edward Leon, booked as keeper.

Fifty Berwyn residents in protest meeting asked Mayor Smith to reinstate Chief of Police Edward Ritter.

Anton Martino, 32 S. Desplaines, lured into passageway, beaten and robbed near 718 W. Harrison. Two arrested.

Thirteen women and nine men arrested in alleged disorderly flat at 2126 W. Madison. Mrs. Anna Stahl booked as keeper.

Four stabbed, 13 arrested in fight in rooming house at 8928 The Strand, S. Chicago.

Delay in arrival of auto trucks stalled plan of taking mail delivery away from street car companies.

Mrs. Lucy Bassile, 718 Gilpin pl., missing. Husband says she was stolen by "Black Hand man."

George Matuici, 4, 1738 Altgeld, locked in Prescott school by mother, sweeper. Found by police when mother asked search.

Corporation Counsel Sam'l Ettleson to attend special session of legislature as senator.

Auto of Policeman Ben Bowman, Maxwell st. station, stripped while left standing in street. Two arrested as thieves.

Donovan Hayes, 7, 61 W. Chestnut st., killed by auto driven by W. L. Krider, 1506 N. LaSalle.

Christine Kiohn, 20, 5828 S. Green, beaten and robbed while visiting in Evanston. Found unconscious.

Forty-four violations of Sunday closing law found by police. Many arrests made.

Catherine Wright, 9, 1372 Carroll av., missing since Nov. 9. Police asked to search.

Wm. P. Burns, 4729 Princeton av., and C. H. Rodgers, 4481 Clifton av., robbed by holdup who threw pepper in their eyes.

Franklin Jackson, missing Northwestern university cashier, expected to give self up.

Mrs. Walter H. Reeves, Barrington, Ill., killed when auto turned over following blowout of rear tire.

Philomena Nasilotti, 737 Sibley, arrested when she tried to get away.